Sale of Public Lands.

LAND OFFICE
Bangor, June 1, 1863

In pursuance of law as defined in Chapter 3 Section 32, Revised Statutes and of orders from the Governor and Council, approved February 5, and March 25, 1863, I hereby give notice that the following schedule of Lands will be offered for sale on TUESDAY at 12 o'clock noon on the 1st day of September next, at the Land Office at a price per acre not less than the minimum fixed in the advertised list.

The sale to be by sealed proposals in conformity with the provisions of the foregoing Chapter and Section which require that ten per centum of the minimum price of the township or part thereof, shall accompany each proposal which sum shall constitute a part of and be allowed in the cash payment to be made upon the township or tract purchased.

"The person making the highest bid above the minimum price shall be declared the purchaser and on pay ment of one-third of the purchase money in cash (including the ten per cent of the minimum price deposited), the Land Agent shall make out and deliver to him a conditional deed, in the usual form of State deeds, of the tract by him purchased, taking for the remainder of the purchase money, three promissory notes for equal sums payable annually in one, two and three years with interest, and signed with sufficient sureties for the payment of a fair stumpage of all timber cut thereon, to be applied to the payment of the notes.

"The sum deposited by any other bidder who does not become a purchaser may be withdrawn by him at any time, after the bids are declared and recorded

POOR RICHARD'S EYE AND EAR WATER.

This is the Best Preparation in the World!

READER, are you aware that every time you think, speak or act, you draw on your eyes for strength to do so? Now you are debtor to them, and if they have not arrested your body and shut it up in the prison of disease, remember they must apparently will if you do not satisfy their claims (which is a small one) for all the services they render to you continually. They are crying to you for help every blood streak is a voice. Hear their cry, and save yourself by saving them. Give them a drink of POOR RICHARD'S EYE WATER, Morning and Night. This is all they ask, and they will pour lovely rose your body out of the prison house of disease. They do not want to lose time in explanations. Try them and prove them by faithful perseverance Deafness can be cured and prevented. Baths both eyes and ears.

A Remarkable Cure in Bangor

I, W H PRITCHARD do certify that my wife Esther A has had Weak Eyes from childhood, caused by measles. Our eyes since a lump appeared on the lash of her eye. It increased to the size of a large pea. Becoming somewhat alarmed about it, she proposed it was making. I took my wife Mrs. M G BROWN at the Exchange. She told me she could remove it, and further strengthen her eyes. Mrs B. applied her medicine at seven o'clock in the evening, and at nine o'clock the lump was gone. We could see no more of it. My wife can now see people walking on the other side of the street which she could never do before. She has always had headache when riding in a carriage. Yesterday when riding in a carriage, she had no return of headache. My own eyes were treated two or three times by Mrs. Brown. I find them much strengthened. W H PRITCHARD

IN DETROIT, MICHIGAN.

GREAT SALE OF PINE TIMBER LANDS

THE ST MARY'S FALLS SHIP CANAL COMPANY will offer at public auction, in the city of Detroit, on the second day of September next, of Pine Timber Lands lying in the State of Michigan, which were selected with great care nearly ten years since. It is estimated by good judges that these lands comprise at least one half of all the most valuable pine timber lands in the State and there are none more valuable in North America than those of Michigan.

The facilities which Michigan affords for manufacturing and transporting lumber are so great, the consumption of the country, east and west, mainly supplied from this source is so large, and the area of pine timber lands in the northern portion of the United States, east of the Rocky Mountains, is so small that the value of these lands must yearly advance in a constantly increasing ratio.

This sale presents the greatest chance for selecting valuable timber lands, either in large or small bodies, that has ever been offered in this country. The sale becomes necessary to provide for a large debt of the Company, and will therefore positively take place. The title is perfect and free from all. The stock of the Company will be received at par in payment of purchases made at the sale to an amount equal to 9-11 per cent of the whole purchase money, the remainder, 2 per cent, to be paid in cash.

[Evening Despatches to the Times.]

From the Army of the Potomac—Movements of Lee's Army—Later from Europe—Decrees of the Polish Government—Capture of a Blockade Runner.

NEW YORK, 28th

Special despatches in the morning papers are nearly barren of news

The Herald's Washington despatch states that yesterday, a train from Warrenton to Alexandria conveying about 300 troops, was fired into by guerillas when within two miles of Manassas. No damage was done. The troops scoured the woods in the vicinity but were unable to find the assailants. Proceeding a short distance further, the train was again fired into without injuring any one, and the soldiers were again unable to discover the perpetrators, and the train proceeded without further interruption.

The 72d Pennsylvania regiment, nine months men, left for their homes today, their terms of service having expired.

It was reported here today that some 40 of Mosby's guerillas were captured last night but on inquiry the story proves to be unfounded.

One scouting party captured some half dozen, and others single guerillas which appears to be all that has been done in that line for the past eight hours. General S A Merritt relieves Col Ludlow as commissioner for the exchange of prisoners at Fortress Monroe.

The Times Washington despatch says the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, has decided that a certificate of exemption for those who have been drafted and have furnished a substitute under the conscription act, being expressly required by law to be issued by a board of enrollment is exempt from stamp duty. Any certificate which may be issued by a magistrate in connection with the proceedings of the commissioner, not is subject to a stamp duty of five cents.

Major General Franklin is ordered to New Orleans to report to General Banks.

The Times has the following despatch

Headquarters Army of Potomac,
July 26th—6 p m

The positions of the rebel army are as follows—

On Friday morning at 6 o'clock, the advance of Hill's and Longstreet's corps reached Culpepper. The columns are well closed up, and their rear corps must be three before this time. Of this retrograde movement there can be no question.

Ewell's corps, it is understood, still occupies the Shenandoah Valley, where it is guarding the fords on the Shenandoah river and the rear of the rebel army. This fact is supposed to explain the recent alarm about the alleged movements indicating that Lee was not retreating and was preparing to return to Maryland.

Very latest by Scotia (at New York.)

Warsaw 14th—The National Government has issued a proclamation promising 15 roubles and perfect liberty to serve or not to every Russian soldier who shall desert with arms in his hands. Several thousand copies of the address, which is in the Russian language were distributed yesterday.

The National Government has also issued the following passport regulations—

Art 1. All citizens travelling abroad or in the interior of the country must be provided with passports.

Art 2. The town Captain will furnish passes to the citizens of Warsaw, and the Town or District Chief to the inhabitants of the Provinces.

Art 3. The passport must state the destination of the traveller.

Art 4. Every person travelling must have a passport, but the same one will suffice for a man, his wife and children under 18 years of age.

Art 5. Passports will only be given to persons who are absolutely obliged to travel either on accounts of their health or family affairs.

Applications for passports must be accompanied by medical certificates or other proofs. An exception, however, will be made in the case of merchants.

Art 6. Passports to foreign ports will only be given for a period of four months, and in the interior for not longer than six weeks.

Art 7. Persons producing false medical or other certificates will be fined from 100 to 1000 florins. In case the interests of the country should suffer thereby, or should punishment will also be inflicted in accordance with the criminal code of the 24 July.

Art 8. Criminal punishment will likewise be inflicted in case of forgery or transfer of passports.

Art 9. Citizens now residing in foreign countries must return immediately or demand permission to make a longer stay abroad. This demand is to be made within 30 days.

Art 10. Persons not conforming to this decree will be temporarily deprived of their civil rights and their names published in the official papers.

Art 11. The national authorities are charged with the execution of this decree.

Given in Warsaw at the sitting of the National Government, this 30th day of June, 1863.

Bucharest, July 16th. Four hundred Poles and some Englishmen left Youlchta on board an English steamer and disembarked on the 14th inst.

The instructions received in regard to this expedition by the Wallachian authorities and troops were to employ persuasion, and to avoid a conflict of arms at any cost.

Their conspiratory efforts, however, not being attended by any result, a fight took place which lasted two hours and terminated in the retreat of the Poles, who abandoned their dead and wounded. The arms used by the Poles were of English manufacture and of superior quality.

NEW YORK, 29th

The British steamer Merrimac arrived here this morning with a cargo of cotton, having been captured on the 25th by the gunboat Iroquois while running the blockade off Wilmington, N C.

The Government at Washington has just established a steam fire department for its own use. It will consist of three steam fire engines. Owing to the vast amount of public property, and the inefficiency of the Washington fire department, this precaution has been rendered necessary.

Some copperheads say that government should modify the conscription act, and to get rid of what they call its obnoxious features. Government has no power to modify it, save through the action of Congress, and we all know what stickers the copperheads are for the law, not one tithe of which would they have changed, if we could believe them. 'Tis a pity that they are not as fond of order as they profess to be of law.

MASCULINE BELLES. I often wonder what would be the effect upon a man's self vaunted constancy of such a course of flattery as any average pretty woman is subjected to. Imagine an individual of good sense and calm judgment, surrounded constantly by a set of fascinating ladies, who were only too happy to be his slaves, complimenting him perpetually on his fine eyes, his "faultless complexion" and his "superb dancing," fancy him serenaded by night, visited by day presented with bouquets, and from time to time receiving an honest offer of marriage from persons whose happiness was but too plainly bound up in a favorable answer. What, I say would be the probable result of such an intoxicating process on the character of the young man? Would it not render him so utterly conceited and heartless that he would be quite unendurable? Yet the successful belle is blamed for an innocent fondness for gaiety and admiration! I do not mean to imply that I think such an ordeal is favorable to the development of the best qualities of a woman's nature but considering that from the necessities of the case it is utterly impossible for a beauty to avoid this adulation, fair allowance ought to be made for its effects, and credit given for resisting the ill evil results.

INDIAN FUN WITH THE SNAKES. One of the earliest settlers of the country around Lake Champlain was Colonel Edward Raymond. He understood the character and dispositions of the natives of the forest, and lived with them in much harmony frequently employing them to row him up and down the lake as he had occasion. One stout fellow by the name of Bigbear, had his wigwam at no great distance from the Colonel's dwelling and was often there.—Colonel, having occasion to visit some distant shore of the lake, employed Bigbear to row him in his canoe. On their return they passed near a high yet sloping ledge of rocks, on which lay an immense number of rattlesnakes asleep and basking in the sun. The Indian gave a penetrating look at the colonel and thus inquired

'Raymun love fun?

'Yes' was the reply

'Well then, Raymun have fun in an Indian, and hole a gnum.

So he rowed along silent and slow, and cut a crotched stick from a bunch of hazels on the bank.

'Steady, now, hole a gnum, Raymun' said he as he clapped a crotch astride the neck of the serpent that was asleep close to the edge of the water. 'Take um now Raymun, hole fass.'

The Colonel then took hold of the stick, keeping the serpent down, while Bigbear had up a little sack of powder, put in one end of a slow match therein. He then made it fast to the snake's tail, and touching fire to the match gave orders to "let um go," at the same time pushing the canoe off from the shore, the snake being liberated crawled away to his den. The Indian then immediately stood up and clapped his hands, making as loud a noise as possible and thus roused the serpent's pride in a moment disappeared.

'Now look, Raymun now look—see fun,' said he.

In about a minute the powder exploded, when there was to be sure fun alive. The snakes in thousands covered the rocks, all hissing rattling, twining twirling and jumping in every way imaginable. Colonel Raymond burst into a loud laugh that echoed across the lakes, pleased alike with the success of the trick and the ingenuity of the savage inventors. But Bigbear from the beginning to the end, was as grave as a judge, not moving a muscle and not having the least show of risibility in his countenance. This is truly characteristic of the American aborigines what causes the greatest excitability of laughter in others has no effect upon them.

PRAYING TO DEATH. We find in the Honolulu (Sandwich Islands) Advertiser an account of a superstition which still prevails among the natives. Notwithstanding their apparent conversion to Christianity it seems that at heart they still cherish their old superstitions. They believe in the power of praying each other to death. A missionary writes that he has just returned from a dreadful scene. One of Mr S——'s grown up daughters whom he baptized last February, in full health, with no tangible disease died of sheer terror at the convict on that some enemy was praying her to death.—Young, strong, healthy in the midst of her horror stricken brothers and sisters her vital powers were absolutely annihilated by the terrible conviction. This firm belief in the power of another to pray to death is slaying the people like a horrible specter. Thus a system of indirect assassination is rapidly annihilating the people. It works thus—A affronts B, B goes to C, gives him ten dollars to pray A to death—tells A so and A dies of course. A's father hears of it goes to D pays him fifteen dollars to pray B and C to death—tells B and C, who also die! What nation could stand it?

FLEAS IN CALIFORNIA. San Francisco is certainly improving. The fleas which Californians were once so familiar with are disappearing. Observes a correspondent of the New York Times "Those industrious little insects in former times were counted at four quarts to the square foot, but latterly are not quite so abundant. I have seen in a court room the learned Judge rubbing with a ruler the place where little varment was showing his contempt for the Court, while the 'counsel' was making an affecting appeal to the jury, at the same time rubbing the calf of his leg with the heel of his other boot—the jury in the meantime going through a great variety of gymnations from like causes, producing like effects. I remember noticing the philosopher Greeley, when making his speech from the balcony of the Oriental Hotel, punctuating his discourse with sudden grabs, clinching with great vigor various parts of his person, and, by the same token, I remember his forgetting for the moment his Job like affliction and sitting down. The chair must have been very hot, for he bounded up with astonishing celerity. To what illness flesh heir to in connection with the former subject, I might quote the flea market very lively in doors, where they take refuge from the rain, and in the words of the poet, 'How doth the busy flea improve each shining hour.'"

GENERAL GRANT'S POLITICS. The Galena, Ill. Advertiser clears up the matter as follows

Some papers sympathizing with the rebels, having claimed our fellow citizen, Major General Grant, as a "Democrat," it may be proper for us to say a word touching his politics, speaking by the best authority. Being in the army up to within a few years before the war broke out, and being a military man, he never cast a vote in his life. In 1860 he was friendly to the success of the late judge Douglas, though he often expressed himself as having great confidence in the honesty and patriotism of Mr Lincoln. His father, the venerable Jesse R Grant, now residing in Covington, Kentucky, is a staunch Republican, and voted for Lincoln and Hamlin. His brother, Mr O H Grant, now in charge of the business house in this city, in which the General was engaged before entering the service, is one of our most active and efficient Republicans and Union men. The General himself is now a thorough and devoted supporter of the Administration and its whole policy, without qualification or evasion. In 1862, he was one of the signers of the call on Mr Washburne to again become a candidate for Congress for the Congressional District. He looks with horror upon the peace party of the North, which is instituting a "fire in the rear" of the gallant army he has led to victory and glory.

All his friends and supporters in this city are Republicans and war democrats, while the copperheads are cordially hostile to him. In the late splendid celebration got up in his honor, as the hero of the Mississippi, and the capturer of Vicksburg, the leading "democrats" utterly refused to participate in it, and while the dwellings of our loyal people blazed in magnificent illuminations, the houses of the others mentioned were closed in darkness, and were as black as midnight. To those interested we may, therefore, say that the present political status of the General is not a matter of doubt.

MR BEECHER IN LONDON. An English correspondent says that Henry Ward Beecher left London on the 9th, for Paris and Switzerland. In spite of the pressure brought to bear upon him he refused to make any public addresses. He, however participated in a temperance breakfast given in his honor at the London Coffee House on condition that no reporter should be present. The following particulars were gathered from one of the guests.

Edward Baines M P for Leeds, took the chair and in a very feeling address welcomed Mr Beecher for the second time to this country stating that he once had the honor of receiving his father as a guest. He spoke of Mr Beecher's position in America, of Mrs. Stowe, of temperance, the war and abolition. To this Mr Beecher responded characteristically, in a blended stream of humor, pathos and colloquialism, delightful to all present. Other speeches were made, and everything proceeded pleasantly, until somebody had the bad taste to allude to American affairs in an anti-Union spirit. This broke Mr Beecher to his feet again, and he electrified his auditors by a perfect burst of eloquence on the subject of England's attitude towards the United States during the rebellion, charging the abolitionists of Great Britain with being false to their principles, inconsistent, and deficient in backbone. Americans had hoped not for material but moral countenance from England he asserted, she might have achieved so much at the sacrifice of a little but appeared deliberately to choose the worse part. Mr Beecher completely carried away the feelings of the meeting with him, and earnest hopes were expressed that he would address a public meeting. The time had gone by for that, he answered, he might do so on his return from the continent.

A CHARMING TRADITION. There is a charming tradition connected with the site on which the Temple of Solomon was erected. It is said to have been occupied in common by two brothers, one of whom had a family, the other had none. On this spot there was sown a field of wheat. On the evening succeeding the harvest, the wheat having been gathered in separate shocks, the elder brother said unto his wife—

My younger brother is unable to bear the burden and heat of the day. I will arise take off my shocks and place with him, without his knowledge.'

The younger brother, being actuated by the same benevolent motives said within himself

My elder brother has a family, and I have none, I will arise, take off my shocks and place with his without his knowledge.

Judge of their mutual astonishment when on the following morning, they found their respective shocks undiminished. This course of events transpired for several nights, when each resolved in his own mind to stand guard and solve the mystery. They did so, when on the following night they met each other half way between their respective shocks with arms full.—Upon grounds hallowed with such associations as this was the Temple of Solomon erected—so spacious and magnificent, the wonder and admiration of the world. Alas in these days how many would sooner steal their brother's whole shock than add to it a single sheaf.

FROM RICHMOND. The latest Richmond papers claim that Fitz Hugh Lee's cavalry gained a victory at Bunker Hill, Va., a few days ago.

The Richmond Times reports the arrest of a Northern lady, who is the wife of a wealthy citizen of Richmond, on the charge of being a spy. Some letters which she is believed to have written to people at the North were intercepted. In one of these letters General Stoneman is blamed or not burning the residence and devastating the farm of the Secretary of War, Mr Sheridan, in Goochland, when he made his famous raid around the rebel army. In another letter the names of two clergymen in New York, and a lady in Washington, who are called rebel sympathizers, who should be arrested, are given. It is also stated that the reported object of Rev Dr Hodge's visit to Europe to purchase Bibles was a sham, as his business there was to exert his influence for the South and his arrest on his return is urged. Several farms on James river which should be destroyed are mentioned. The lady, who resided in the family of Dr Hoge, was placed under surveillance at the Catholic Asylum of St Francis de Sales. She is said to have admitted that she wrote one of the letters.

The Richmond Examiner says the abandonment of the invasion of Pennsylvania gives a sense of relief to the majority of our people.—The Potomac is no longer between the army and its base of supplies.

The Despatch makes similar remarks.

The Sentinel considers the movement a matter of general gratification, in view of the swollen condition of the Potomac and the constant rains which suspend military operations.

The Whig says the move is politically a good one as it takes from Lincoln all excuse for conscription. In a military point of view it is doubtless no less good since General Lee has made it.

FROM THE SOUTHWEST. Rebel despatches announce the evacuation of Jackson, Miss., and the following represents the rebel army as still retreating at last accounts—

'Morton, Miss., July 18, 1863. The army (rebel) was still slowly falling back up to four o'clock yesterday evening. No troops, except about two thousand cavalry, had crossed Pearl river. Our cavalry had been skirmishing with theirs beyond Brandon. Citizens who came out since the evacuation of Jackson, say a flag of truce was sent by the citizens to Grant, formally surrendering the city. Grant assured them that private property would be respected. Their cavalry came in and eight o'clock and took possession.

General Jackson has returned from Grant's rear. He captured and destroyed a train of one hundred commissary wagons, and reports an enormous force at Canton. The enemy opposed the river in heavy force yesterday and are moving on us steadily.'

DAMAGED BY LIGHTNING. The ship Speedwell, of Portland, just arrived from Queenstown, was struck by the flood when in Light House Channel, and had her foremast, foretopmast and foretopgallant mast split. No person was injured.—Boston Journal.

UNION NOMINATION.

FOR GOVERNOR.

SAMUEL CONY.

UNION County Convention

THE UNDERSIGNED, appointed a County Committee by the Republican Convention of last year, deeming the present crisis in our National existence demands the united efforts of every citizen in the support of the Government, and that all former party associations should cease until this rebellion and civil war are brought to a close, would invite the citizens of the County of Penobscot who are unconditionally loyal to the Government of the United States, in the support of all its measures for the suppression of the rebellion, and who are resolved to spare no endeavor to maintain our National boundary, to send Delegates to a Convention to be held in the CITY OF BANGOR, on Thursday, the 20th day of August, 1863,

At 10 o'clock A. M.,

For the purpose of nominating Candidates for a County Treasurer, one County Commissioner, three Senators to the State Legislature, and for any other business which may properly come before the Convention.

Each City, Town, and Plantation is entitled to send one Delegate, one additional Delegate for each 200 inhabitants in Town not having over 1000 population, agreeable to the census of 1860, Towns over 1000, and not over 4000, one for each 250; any Town over 4000 inhabitants, one for every 400 of such population, and one additional for each fraction of 100.

GEORGE STETSON,
W. B. FERGUSON,
J. ROGERS,
J. F. HORTON,
A. W. PORTER.

Bangor, July 20, 1863.

Mr. Whiting on Colored Troops. In response to an invitation to address the convention of colored citizens at Poughkeepsie, William Whiting, Esq., Solicitor to the War Department, has written a letter, important from the information it contains and the official assurances which it conveys. The following is the close of the letter:

On the 22d of May the War Department issued a general order (No. 143) establishing a bureau in the Adjutant General's office for the organization of colored regiments, whereby the system of employing them as a part of the forces of the United States has become a fixed and permanent policy of the Government. The policy, sanctioned by Congress, carried into practical effect by the Government, has been approved by the general consent of wise and patriotic men. The country cannot afford to lose the aid of the best and chief supporters in the South.

The employment of colored troops, it is true, was in the beginning experimental. The law of 1862, which first authorized them to enter the service, provided no means of payment.

The second law, which permitted their employment, authorized them to be paid ten dollars per month and one ration per day. This law was, however, made with reference to those who, by force of arms, or by provisions of statutes had been recently freed from bondage.

The important class of colored soldiers from the Free States were probably not in the contemplation of Congress when framing these acts—But now, white colored men are admitted to be citizens of several of the Northern States and of the United States, and since the Conscription Act makes no distinction between white and colored citizens, but requires them equally to be enrolled and drafted in the forces of the United States, there seems to be no reason why such citizens should not, when volunteering to serve the country, be placed upon the same footing with other soldiers as regards their pay and bounty.

The attention of Congress will be directed to this subject, and from the generous manner in which they have treated the soldiers heretofore, it cannot be doubted that they will honor themselves by doing full justice to those of every color, who rally round the Union flag in time of public danger.

But I do not forget that the colored soldiers are not fighting for pay. They will not let their enemies reproach them with being mean as well as cowardly. They will not lose this, their first chance, to vindicate their right to be called and treated as men. Pay or no pay, they will rally round that banner of freedom which shall soon float over a country that contains no slaves within its borders.

The policy of the government is fixed and immovable. Congress has passed the irrevocable acts of emancipation. The Supreme Court of the United States have unanimously decided that since July 13, 1861, we have been engaged in a territorial civil war, and have full belligerent rights against the inhabitants of the rebellious districts. The President has issued proclamations under his hand and seal. Abraham Lincoln takes no backward step. A man once made free by law cannot be again made a slave. The government has no power, if it had the will, to do it. Omnipotence alone can re-enslave a free man. Fear not that the Administration will ever take the back track. The President wishes the aid of all Americans of whatever descent or color, to defend the country. He wishes every citizen to share the perils of the contest, and to reap the fruits of victory.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
WILLIAM WHITING.

Edward Gilbert, Esq., New York city.

Remuneration for Losses. During the late campaign in Maryland a farmer of Washington county waited upon General Howard, and after telling him that the rebels had taken nearly all of his flour, hay crops, &c., and that as the federal army were then bivouacking on his place he would necessarily suffer other losses, asked if there was not a prospect that he would be remunerated for the losses sustained. Gen. Howard advised him, after he had taken his harvest, to make a careful calculation of his losses and present the statement to the government; and, added the General, "if they do not pay you, give it to them on the same terms that I gave my right arm—without compensation."

Government will not suspend the draft in New York, but, by way of compromise, it is ready to suspend all who treasonably resist it.

The Baltimore correspondent of the New York Herald, who is supposed to possess peculiar facilities for obtaining news from rebeldom, says that Lee's expedition into Pennsylvania cost him 30,000 men and that he has 60,000 left. The Confederacy has, he says, only 240,000 soldiers in arms, all told. The writer adds:

General Lee has reported to the War Office at Richmond that Meade's army is numerically superior to his, and that the Union army is composed now entirely of disciplined troops—evidently referring to the fact that Couch's levies of raw militia from Pennsylvania have left Meade's army and are no longer acting with it. Consequently—so my informant states—orders have been sent to General Lee not to fight Meade now nor near his present position; but to maneuvre in such a manner as to draw the Union army down towards Staunton or Gordonsville.—By the time this is done they hope to be able to reinforce General Lee to such an extent as to ensure the defeat of Meade's army.

The navy deserves more commendation than it has received for the part it had in bringing about some of the most useful of our late successes.—But for our naval forces, neither Vicksburg nor Port Hudson could have been taken. It is to the United Service of the United States that we owe the defeats of the enemy in the Southwest; and the names of Porter and Farragut should ever be associated with those of Grant and Banks.

The public debt, according to official statement, was $1,097,375,360 on the 30th of June, which date closed the last fiscal year. This is somewhat larger than the Secretary of the Treasury estimated it would be, two years ago; but the difference is not sufficient to affect his reputation as a financier. Many things have occurred to disturb his estimates, and all calculations of the kind are taken with certain allowances. We have reason to be satisfied with the state of affairs at the Treasury, and the country carries the load with ease. The stock is as good as any in the world, and if the war should be brought to a close by the end of the present year, our national funds will become first favorites on the exchanges of the world. All depends upon the course of things during the next twelve months, and we start well, and should do well hereafter.

The Rebel Army Reduced One-Half. The Washington correspondent of the New York Commercial says that "a careful estimate has been made in official quarters of the prisoners taken, and the number killed and wounded in the various rebel armies during June and July, and it is found that with a liberal estimate of their forces, their available strength during that time has been reduced just one half. If we exaggerate the forces at the various points in the Confederacy, it is hard to make their army reach 250,000, while our entire force must be double that number. If we give Lee 70,000, Bragg 40,000, A P Hill (in Richmond), 25,000, Price 10,000, Beauregard 20,000, Mobile 5,000, Savannah 5,000, and Johnston 20,000, we can hardly make 200,000 men in the rebel ranks. It is no wonder, then, that Jeff Davis, recognizing the great question of exhaustion, calls for wholesale conscription."

The Michigan Central road is one of the most popular, best managed and best appointed roads in the country, and withal it is, as a matter of course, one of the roads whose stock stands the highest in the market. R N Rice, Esq., of Detroit, is the General Superintendent, and he is one of the most active and accomplished railroad managers in the whole West.—Portland Press

We can endorse all the Press says about the management of the Michigan Central. We had occasion to travel over that road last fall, and we can safely say that it is one of the best, if not the best, appointed and managed roads we were ever on—and we have no doubt it will continue so as long as Mr Rice is at the head.

The Late Battle at Charleston. The Herald has the annexed dispatch, by which it will be seen that New England troops suffered largely in the late battle on Morris Island, and that the 54th Mass (colored) regiment has received its "baptism of blood," and acquitted itself nobly.

Morris Island, S. C., July 22, via New York, 26.

On the 13th inst. General Terry's division on James Island was attacked by the rebels. The 54th Mass. regiment, then doing picket duty, fought bravely, losing forty-six in killed, wounded and missing. The rebels were defeated and driven back.

On the 18th instant, our batteries on Morris Island and the iron-clads bombarded Fort Wagner all day the rebel forts responding. The firing on both sides was terrific. In the evening Gen Strong's and Col Putnam's brigades attempted to carry Fort Wagner by storm. The engagement lasted two hours and our troops got possession of a part of the fort but were driven out. Both of the brigades, which were largely composed of New England troops, were badly cut up.

Generals Strong and Seymour were wounded, and Col Putnam, of the 7th New Hampshire regiment, was killed. Col Shaw, of the 54th Mass, was taken prisoner and subsequently reported dead, but the latter is not certain. Lieut Col Hobbs of the 3d New Hampshire, Captains Brown and Leavett of the 7th New Hampshire, and many other New England officers were killed.

Our total casualties will number over one thousand. We occupy all our old positions.

Since the 19th there has been occasional cannonading, with but few casualties.

The following dispatch comes to the Merchants' Exchange:

New York, July 27. The Herald gives the following casualties in the 54th Mass. (colored) regiment: wounded, Col Shaw, (who is a prisoner,) Major Hallowell, Adjutant James, Capts Appleton, Jones, Russell, Pope and Simpkins, Lieuts Howard, Jewett and Tucker. The Herald says the 54th was composed of good stuff, if they were colored. No better fighting was ever done than they did on James Island. Their color sergeant, is very highly spoken of.

Hard on the Darkies. A notorious copperhead in Boston advertises for a 'Substitute,' and will be content with nothing less than a full blooded negro. The poor darkies must feel terribly disgraced at the implication that they are no better than copperheads.

☞ The excursion of the First Baptist Sunday-school is postponed until further notice.

Burglary. The stores of Messrs Thayer & Greenough, Mitchell & Co (Mutual store, and F. W. Dearow, were broken into Monday night, and the money drawers in each place cleaned of their contents, which, fortunately, were of little value. Not more than three or four dollars, in postage stamps and coppers, were bagged by the robbers. Money seemed to be the sole object of the burglars, as no article in the stores have been missed. In the money drawer at the Mutual store, we learn, was the safe-key which the scoundrels, either from want of knowledge or ability, were unable to make use of, else their raid would have afforded them quite a haul.

Good Horse. We notice by the California papers that Mr George R Lancaster, formerly of Belfast, has disposed of a fine young mare for $2000.

Nuisance (new cents). It should be borne in mind that the cents, or rather substitutes for cents which are now flooding this market, are entirely worthless. The only cents possessing any value are the U S coppers and new nickel cents.

Escaped. Hutchinson, the deserter, confined at Fort Preble under sentence of death, made his escape by slipping his irons.

Personal. Major Boothby, of the Maine cavalry, is at Lewiston at his fathers, suffering from the effects of a rifle wound in his shoulders.

Bad Affair at Rockland. We understand that one Dr. Rouse, a notorious copperhead at Rockland, got into a political discussion with an Irishman, who had less education but more character than the Doctor. Hard words ensued, and finally the Irishman throttled Rouse, who drew a pistol and shot him in the abdomen. A large crowd collected, and it required the most strenuous exertions on the part of the Mayor and other prominent citizens, to keep the people from executing summary vengeance upon the ruffian. He was finally got into the lock-up for safety, and even there it was with great difficulty that he could be kept from the indignant crowd. We understand that the riot act was read and a strong police force called out.

Polar Star Lodge No. 114, F. & A. M., was constituted at Bath, July 24th, by M. W. Wm. P. Preble of Portland. At the close of the ceremonies a fine collation was enjoyed and an hour or two was spent, pleasantly in speaking, singing and listening to volunteer toasts.

Fifteenth Maine. We learn from Captain Boyce that the Fifteenth is located at Camp Parapet, above New Orleans, and is in excellent condition. Colonel Dyer commands the post.—Major Drew is in charge of the regiment. Lt. Col Murrey was left at Barrancas, sick.

The Dunlap Monument, which is to be erected to the memory of Hon. Robert P. Dunlap by his Masonic brethren and other friends, is to consist of a granite triple base, and to be surmounted with a marble bust. The granite is the Georgetown, fine grained and dark. The first base is 6 feet square—second base, 4 feet and 8 inches—third base 3 feet 9 inches. Resting on the third base is a granite die, on three sides of which are cavities for the insertion of marble slabs. One slab is for family inscriptions—one for Masonic—and the other for the State. A beautifully worked bead is cut in the granite to surround the slabs. Surmounting the die is a granite cap 3 feet and 7 inches square, on which will stand the marble bust of the distinguished man, now being executed by Simmons of Portland. This bust, it is expected, will be a superior piece of work, and will give to the monument its finest touch and appearance. The bust alone will cost $1,000.

☞ Soldiers speak feelingly of the pleasure experienced in receiving letters from home. If the friends at home only knew how much a letter was prized by the soldier, they would write oftener than they do.

☞ Within the past month Major Mann of Portland, has paid out over $30,000 for bounties and back pay due to deceased soldiers, mostly in this State.

Arrest of Elder Merrill. We are informed that Elder Wm P. Merrill of this city, has been arrested in St. John for attempting to recruit substitutes.—Portland Courier.

Serious Injury to Chaplain Lincoln.—The many friends of Chaplain J. K. Lincoln, of the 22d Maine, will be pained to read the following statement from the correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune, dated New Orleans, 18th—

An Engineer officer yesterday informed me that he was an eye witness to a terrible accident on Thursday, at Port Hudson. The Chaplain of the 22d Maine was sitting upon his horse, near the embankment, conversing with some gentlemen, when the animal, which had been restless, ly prancing about, suddenly backed down the precipice—a distance of nearly forty feet. The horse recovered himself, and walked at pleasure the grass plat, but the Chaplain was very seriously injured.

Gov. Aiken of South Carolina. According to a statement from the Baltimore correspondent of the New York Commercial, Ex-Governor Aiken of South Carolina has been incarcerated in the Libby Prison at Richmond, for refusing to submit to the traitor tyranny of Jeff Davis. Gov. Aiken was one of the most wealthy men and the largest slaveholder in South Carolina, and according to this writer, has laid "his three thousand slaves on the altar of his country as slaves no longer but as free men, and adheres to the star spangled banner."

Major Generals without Commands.—There are now thirteen Major Generals without commands, viz: McClellan, Fremont, Butler, Hooker, Hunter, Buell, McDowell, Franklin, McClernand, Curtis, Cadwallader, Morell, Milroy.

ON WEDNESDAY, the 26th day of August next, at 11 o'clock A. M., at the Merchants' Mutual Marine Insurance Office, so much of the following described Real Estate as shall not have been previously sold at private sale.

Dwelling House on Lincoln Street.

The two story Dwelling House on Lincoln Street known as the 'Emerson House,' with Ell and Stable attached, This house was built by Albert Emerson, Esq., and no pains were spared to make it comfortable and convenient. It is of modern style—thoroughly finished throughout, and very conveniently arranged. It has one of the best wells of water in the city, and also an abundant supply of cistern water.

The Lot is 105 by 100 feet. It is situated upon high ground, and commands a view of the city, surrounding country, and the river. Lincoln Street runs from Main to Third Street, and the property is located about midway between Main and Third—making the access to the business part of the city convenient and easy by either route. For a person who desires a retired situation, or for a business man who keeps a horse, this property is desirable.

House Lot on Lincoln Street.

The Lot northerly of, and adjoining the brick house known as the "Taylor House," on Lincoln St. The Lot is 70 by 100 feet, and very desirably located for building purposes.

House Lots on Stewart Street.

Four Lots, 70 by 100 feet each, on Stewart Street. Stewart Street (not yet graded) runs parallel with Lincoln Street—next street southerly.

House Lots on Lime Street.

Eight very desirable Lots on Lime Street—opposite the land of Asa Warren.

All the above property will be sold on liberal terms. Sale positive. jy29 ts

SAD AFFAIR. By private letter from Company A, 21th Maine regiment, we learn that while the regiment was awaiting transportation at New Orleans, private Samuel H Lancaster killed 1st Lieut Charles C Newell of said company, by stabbing him with a bayonet. Both parties belonged in Richmond in this State and had been on good terms; but Lancaster had been insane at intervals and his officers considered him so now. The sad affair cast a deep gloom through the camp.—Lewiston Journal.

Re-union Extraordinary.

We copy from the Portland Press the following interesting account of a re-union in that city. It is not often that ten of eleven surviving members of any society can be gathered after such a lapse of time:

More than forty five years ago, there existed in Portland a society of young men, formed for social and literary purposes. They adopted the mystic name of the Pash-Douwk; o Society.—They numbered twenty-one. At each monthly meeting here was an original address or poem, written by a member. Original songs and odes were produced and read. Forensic disputation, mood trifle and critical remarks of an enlivened the meeting and elicited flashes of genius and sparks of wit. The meetings were temperate—not even cigars were allowed. The members made good improvement in English composition, speaking, debating and the use of good language. Their meetings were held in a hired room in Haymarket Row, which they called "the Recess," and which was open every evening. The regular meetings were called by notices printed in the old Portland Gazette and signed by "Alboul Hassan, Grand Scribe."

These meetings were private, their rites and doings secret. No person could be a member unless elected by a unanimous ballot.

A meeting was held annually, when the society had a supper, and an address and poem were spoken. The last of those meetings was held in the early part of 1821. Grenville Mellen gave the address, and Josiah Pierce, Jr., the poem. Soon after most of the members left Portland to enter on business for themselves; some died; the monthly meetings ceased, and the society took a Rip Van Winkle sleep for forty-two years.

The idea of a re-union was suggested by old members resident in Portland, and accordingly all of the surviving members were notified to be present July 20th. In response, ten members appeared of the eleven now living. They were Edward Isley, of Madison, Wisconsin, Andrew Scott, of Flushing, New York, Spencer Tinkham, of Boston, and Richard Stone, of Newburyport, Mass., Joseph Burton, of Augusta, Maine, Josiah Pierce, of Gorham, Maine, Charles Rogers, Joseph C. Noyes, Nath'l F. Deering, and John Gunnard, of Portland.

An old trunk—containing the Records of the Society was produced. It had been locked up more than forty years ago. The key was lost.—Joseph C. Noyes, a former President of the Society, removed the lock, and exhibited to view, all the records, written productions, notices, and bills of long gone days. There in perfect preservation were the polished addresses of George Chase, the witty poetic effusions of Granville Mellen, the stirring odes and songs of Rufus B. Washburn and Andrew Scott, and the productions of surviving members.

Then Josiah Pierce, at the request of the members recited from the original manuscript a poem delivered by him as one of the meetings of the society more than forty-two years ago, and it was received with the plaudits of more than forty years ago, renewed with increased enthusiasm.

After partaking of a rich and bountiful supper with several of the member's ladies, Old Lang Syne was sung, and the society separated to meet again at the end of the next forty years, or sooner. P.

GUY R. PHELPS, Secretary.

Hartford, February 1st, 1863.

The losses during the year past (as was anticipated,) have been unusually large, amounting to three hundred and sixty-three thousand four hundred and eighty dollars, on one hundred and forty-four lives. Though the mortality is greater than last year, it does not exceed the ratio of the table upon which the premiums are predicated. And as in last year's business, the interest on the investment exceed the losses.

Of the war risks, seven have been slain in the field, or subsequently died of their wounds, and seven have died of sickness in camp, or after being discharged; but the extra war premiums have exceeded the losses by such policies.

Of the insured who have died during the year, 15 has paid but one premium, 17, two, 14, three, 7 four, 5, five, 4, six, 5, eight; 7, nine, 2, ten, 4 eleven, 18, twelve; 22, thirteen; 15, fourteen; and 15, fifteen premiums each.

Three millions ninety-three thousand four hundred and ninety-one dollars have been paid to the families and creditors of the insured, since the organization of the Company; and over two millions and one hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars have been returned to policy holders in dividends. Two hundred and sixteen thousand six hundred and eighty-eight dollars have been paid in dividends during the year past. These disbursements for dividends will indicate what the accumulation would have been now, had this Company, like some others, paid no dividends except upon the death of the insured.

This Company, organized in 1846, on a system entirely Mutual, furnishes Insurance in all the various forms, and to meet all the various contingencies for which Life insurance is desired at the net cost to the policy-holders.

There is no Stock or Guaranty Fund to absorb the profits, but all the surplus is annually credited to the policy holders as dividends in proportion to the amount of the premium they pay, and may be appropriated to the payment of future premiums, after the first four years. This is the only Company in the United States which allows a dividend upon every payment of premium.

The Directors have declared the dividend of 1860 to be paid during the current year, as the renewals become due and are paid—by reduction of the premium of those who have paid all cash, or cancelling the notes of those who have given notes for one-half.

The credit or note system as adopted by this Company, is liable to be misunderstood, being often misrepresented by persons acting for, or interested in Companies requiring all cash payments. It is frequently represented that in a series of years there will accumulate a large amount of premium notes as a debt against the policy to be handed over to heirs in payment of the policy or in lieu of money. Prejudice or inexcusable ignorance only could suggest such an illustration as applicable to this Company, as the annual payment of dividends adopted by this Company applies in payment of the notes annually given for premiums; consequently the accumulation can never exceed four notes, and to provide for them there will be a corresponding number of dividends. The assured, however, are not required to give a note, but can, if they prefer, pay all in cash, in which case the dividends will be applied to a reduction of their premiums, which, if the present success of the Company is continued, will reduce the annual payments to nearly or quite one-half after the fourth payment. See the Report of the Massachusetts Commissioners, for 1862, for a complete vindication of the advantages to the insured, and the security to the Company, of the note or half-credit system of Life Insurance.

REFRIGERATORS.

The most perfectly ventilated Refrigerator ever invented.

THESE REFRIGERATORS are constructed upon purely scientific principles, the provisions and fruit in them being preserved by a cold, dry and pure current of air, thus preventing the decomposition of provisions, and the partaking of the taste or smell of one article with another, which arises from the damp and impure atmosphere usually prevalent in the old Style Refrigerators.

The testimonials of such men as Prof. Hosford, of Harvard University, Prof. Hill of Brown University and others of like distinction, placing them above all other Refrigerators, and of being the most perfect of the kind ever invented, ought to be sufficient evidence of their worth.

THE [illegible] fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. That it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood; purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing, but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

CHERRY PECTORAL,

HUNNEWELL'S

UNIVERSAL

THIS Preparation has real claims to the confidence of the public by its perfect simplicity, and freedom from every component which in any way places resistance on its use. Day or Night, by Old or Young, that to find the most cases of its from character and results, to which the agents can testify, by its being made the Pocket Medicine of Horace's Companion of all, and the remedy to all Throat And Lung Complaints, by using it every hour, it necessarily or when there is the least sticking in the Throat, or disposition to Cough. By such freedom of use it

CURES

Coughs,
Colds,
Sore Throat,
Bronchial Complaints,
Hoarseness

and all such, as when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION!

To Public Speakers and Singers it is most valuable, as it will cure to the Intestines, clears the Throat, and prevents the prostration which follows great exertion.

As a Soothing Syrup it simplicity calls for special attention, as the most delicate infant may take it with the greatest freedom.

This Preparation, by its splendid results, has shown the great necessity of a true Nervine and Tonic Remedy, which goes to the seat of all sick complaints, completely relieving the pains, and leaving no pain of liability behind.

As most complaints of this nature proceed from inward causes, they are reached only through the stomach, and in most of them, time and money is wasted by the use of Liniments and Lotions

Let this preparation be fairly tested and it will be found worthy the name and fame of a true

ANODYNE!

IT CURES

Neuralgia,
Rheumatism,
Gout,
Tooth Ache,
Ear Ache
Nervous Head Ache,
Distress after eating,
Fits,
Hysteria,
Nervousness,
Spine Complaint,
St Vitus Dance,
Cholera Morbus,
Pains in Stomach and Bowels

also, the chief of all our confidence and security

LOSS OF SLEEP!

☞ To the Sleepless Should it give the most refreshing sleep

To Females, suffering the pains of Monthly Incumbrances, it completely relieves, while Nature's work is undisturbed. This is of great importance, as from inadvertence dates most, if not all, wrecks to the Nervous system, and Chronic Female Complaints.

For Stomach, or Tape Worms, it is a sure remedy.

For children, when Teething, it completely soothes the pain, by dilating with milk and rubbing the gums. When very severe give it 5 to 10 drop doses in milk and is a perfect relief

American & Foreign Patents.

A. H. EDDY

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of the U S Patent Office, Washington (under the Act of 1837)

7d State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years continues to secure Patents in the United States also, in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries; Caveats, Specifications, Bonds of Assignments and all Papers or Drawings for Patents executed on liberal terms and with dispatch. Researches made into Antiquities or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions and legal or other opinions rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington

The agency is not only the largest in New England, but in point of research and advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not unnecessarily superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that mine is more extensive of the United States than the subscriber, and as success is the best proof of actual legal and ability, he would add that he has abundant reason to be sure, and can prove, that at no other office of kind are the charges for like professional services so moderate. The inadequate position of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official evidence relative to patents.

There, he has his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents

All success ty of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in the form to secure for them early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office"

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

"Mr. A. H. Eddy has made for me Thirteen applications, in all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability in his profession I do not commend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents as they may be sure of having the most skilful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART

During eight months the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on taken rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EIGHT ONES of which was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents.
